17 Noorinan Street, Kiama

Picturesque garden retreat in central Kiama

Set amongst beautifully manicured landscaped gardens, is a spacious retreat nestled in the foothills of Noorinan Street. Your eyes are spoilt for choice between the charming gardens and sweeping views from the ocean to the escarpment, over the idyllic Kiama township. Step onto the second level to appreciate the clever design and intelligent layout of the property. Rooms flow seamlessly with gracious open plan living areas, vast bedrooms and substantial bathrooms. All rooms boast breathtakingly beautiful views of the ocean or the picturesque gardens. The first floor also features a spacious lounge room, which could make a wonderful guest bedroom, home office or secluded teenagers retreat, adjoining its own separate bathroom and storage.

This prodigious home has been immaculately cared for; carpets are pristine, paintwork is perfect and you won't need to lift a finger to correct anything either inside or outside the home. The property is centrally located in a quiet street, which is a short stroll from Surf Beach and the heart of Kiama with its fabulous restaurants, cafes and shopping. If you fancy a hit of Tennis, Kiama Tennis Club is just up the street, along with the bowling club and the Kiama Coastal Walk.
