Fresh Stylish Coastal Living

Inviting, immaculate and lovingly maintained, this pristinely presented home is sure to impress.

The style and charming character which epitomises this property, is obvious from the moment you first lay eyes on this beautiful home. It has magnificent street presence, with its manicured established gardens and contemporary color scheme. As you make your way up the driveway, you will likely notice your gaze drifting in appreciation over the array of detail that collectively contributes to what can only be described as an impeccably presented family home.

The formal entry is crisp, fresh and inviting. Polished timber flooring and impeccable plantation shutters throughout, high ceilings and the clever use of navy and brilliant white lends itself to a distinctly clean and relaxed coastal feel. The floorplan of the home has been skillfully created to ensure that a family will have enough space and privacy to enjoy every designer nook. A wonderfully sun drenched living area, adjoining the open plan kitchen, is a highlight. Hinting of relaxed Sunday mornings, fresh coffee and the promise of reclining in the sunlight to enjoy a good book or read the newspaper. The spacious living area effortlessly spills out to the all weather under cover pitched roof BBQ area, which is perfect for manning the grill and entertaining family and friends.

At the rear of the home you will find a detached media room, which would also make a wonderful granny flat or moody teenagers retreat. The landscaped, private and flat back yard makes a perfect area for the kids to play, otherwise they can ride their bikes in the quiet and friendly street while you socialise with the neighbors. The High School and general store are located within close walking distance, otherwise you can stroll to the stunning Bonaira Nature Walk which takes you through to Kendalls Beach.

If you're looking for a beautifully renovated property which offers a relaxed coastal lifestyle, in a quiet and friendly neighborhood then you will love this home.
