7 Queen Street, Berry

Sun-drenched Berry Living

Standing at the end of the driveway, you can instantly see the selling points of this home - a façade that invites sunshine in, whilst also offering privacy on a prized street of Berry.

When you live in a region famous for its rural landscapes and coastal views, the best homes blur the lines between outside and inside living - and this property on Queen street is no exception.

Every room in this 3-bedroom home has been built to maximise natural light and create an airy, peaceful atmosphere. Newly renovated, from the modern kitchen to smaller design details, the current owners have created a neutral space that will suit every taste.

However, there is still room for character-building touches - engineered French Oak floors, brand new Italian gas appliances, subway tiling in the kitchen accented by custom-made cupboards, and chrome and glass fittings in both bathrooms, with a stone bath.

Every bedroom is of generous size, hidden from the entertaining areas. The main bathroom and master suite room have access to an expansive timber deck - also added during the renovations - which wraps around the entire back of the building. It can also be accessed from the open plan living room and dining room, which leads onto the kitchen with its modern breakfast bar - perfect for all the family.

Close enough to commute to Sydney and Wollongong for work, and only a 15-minute drive from the pristine beaches of Gerroa and Shoalhaven Heads, this property has easily attracted rental tenants in the past.

Buy it as an investment or move in and become part of Berry's thriving community.
