37 Tasman Drive, Gerringong

Ultimate Coastal Destination to Build your Dream Home

Become one of the lucky last owners to secure a piece of land on Tasman Drive in beautiful Gerringong! This special coastal town was established in 1854 and this block of land, 738m² in size, is situated amongst the town's history and beauty. With the Werri beach pool only 5 mins walk away and the centre of town a 10-minute walk away, you'll find everything you need right at your new doorstep.

In case you're still not a local, Werri Beach is a popular surfing beach and one of the most pristine beaches along the south coast. Ourie Rock Pool has been there since the 1930's and is a must destination swim spot for travellers. There is an easy walk coastal footpath running between the north end of Werri Beach and Kiama which is part of the Kiama Coastal Walk. Other places of interest nearby include The Kiama Blowhole, the largest blowhole in the world. Whale watching platforms on the southern headland of Werri Beach (not far from your new house) from where whales can be seen migrating north to give birth between April to August, or if you're lucky enough you might see them from your own bedroom window or terrace!

Gerringong has several 5-star places to eat, making it the perfect place to entertain friends and family. The town is perfect for starting a new family, raising children or even retiring to enjoy the finer things in life.

The land slopes perfectly, caught between the ocean views and the green escarpment from behind. Low-density residential zoning area means no high rises in your neighbourhood or busy traffic! Just rolling green hills all around and the quiet lull of the ocean from down the road.

Build, landscape and enjoy... This is the sea change dreams are made of.
